

Manure-hauling truck overturns, spills load

By Dan Cherry

Daily Telegram Staff Writer

Posted May 15, 2019 at 12:31 AM

ADRIAN TWP. — A truck hauling manure overturned on Bent Oak Highway just south of Hunt Road Tuesday.

Rescue crews were dispatched at 10:11 a.m. to the scene, according to Lenawee County Sheriff's Office dispatch records on a report of a truck rollover. The southbound truck had overturned into the northbound lane, spilling hundreds of pounds of manure into the ditch on the east side of Bent Oak Highway.

The driver escaped with minor injuries, according to personnel at the scene. Adrian Township public safety personnel were assisted at the scene by the Lenawee County Sheriff's Office and Neill's Towing.

Additional information on the crash was not immediately available Tuesday.